CONTINUATION SPACE TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

If necessary, attach continuation sheet(s) of the same size as this application, with your name and Social Security Number at the top of each sheet and each answer numbered the same as the question to which it refers.

GENERAL

This information is provided pursuant to Public Law 93-579 (Privacy Act of 1974), December 31, 1974, for individuals completing FBI employment application forms.

AUTHORITY

Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 0.137, authorizes the Director of the FBI to exercise power and authority vested in the Attorney General by law to take final action in matters pertaining to the employment, direction and general administration of personnel in the FBI. Your Social Security Account Number is requested under the authority of Executive Order 9397.

PURPOSE AND USE

The principal purpose of employment application forms is to collect information needed to determine qualifications, suitability, and availability of applicants for FBI employment and of current FBI employees for reassignment, reinstatement, transfer, or promotion. Your completed application may be used to examine, rate and/or assess your qualifications; to determine if you are entitled under certain laws and regulations such as Veterans' Preference, and restrictions based on citizenship, members of family already employed, and residence requirements; and to contact you concerning availability and/or interview. All or part of your completed FBI employment application form may be disclosed outside the FBI to:

1. Federal agencies upon request for an eligibility list of persons or individuals to consider for appointment, reassignment, reinstatement, transfer, or promotion.
2. State and local government agencies under the Intergovernment Personnel Act terms if you have expressed an interest in and availability for such employment consideration.
3. State and local government agencies under the President's Executive Program terms if you have expressed an interest in and availability for such employment consideration.
4. Federal agency investigators to determine your suitability for federal employment.
5. Federal, state, or local agencies to create other personnel records after you have been appointed.
6. To any appropriate entity responsible for investigating, prosecuting, or enforcing law, regulation, or contract, or for licensing (as to any indication of a violation of law, regulation, or contract, or of other matters bearing on licensing determinations, either on its face, or in conjunction with other information).
7. Appropriate federal, state, local, foreign or other public authority to elicit information, assistance, or cooperation in the background criminal, intelligence, or security investigation.
8. A requesting federal, state, local, foreign or other public authority to the extent the information is for employment, security, contracting, or licensing determinations by the requesting agency.
9. Federal agency selecting officials involved with internal personnel management functions.

EFFECTS OF NONDISCLOSURE

Because this employment application form requests mandatory data (qualifications and biographical information, etc.), it is in your best interest to answer all questions. Omission of an item means you might not receive full consideration for a position in which this information is needed. A false answer to a question in the employment application may be grounds for not employing you, or for dismissing you after you begin work, and may be punishable by fine or imprisonment (U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 1001). All statements are subject to investigation, including a check of your fingerprints, police records, and former employers. All information you give will be considered in reviewing your statement.
